The Renoir is a floor plan designed with a focus on simplicity, functionality, and modern living. The entrance through the front foyer immediately introduces the practical layout of this home. A hallway leads you past essential amenities, including a secondary bedroom, convenient for guests, and a half bathroom. Adjacent to this area is a flex room, offering the flexibility to serve as an office, hobby room, or additional living space, tailored to your needs. The inclusion of a laundry room nearby adds to the home's efficiency, positioned for easy access. The rear foyer creates a seamless connection from the garage into the home, emphasizing the thoughtful flow of the floor plan. The heart of the home is the spacious great room, merging effortlessly with the kitchen area. This open-concept space is designed for comfort and usability, featuring ample natural light and a view of the backyard through picturesque dinette windows. Tucked away for privacy, the primary bedroom is strategically placed to offer a quiet retreat. It includes a large bedroom and bathroom for a relaxed, functional space, and a spacious closet for organization.
